

We are looking for a candidate who can challenge others to reach their potential as employees. You will be the boss of our fast-paced store, with further opportunities career advancement. You will also have to develop interpersonal skills, understanding of business, leadership skills and learn business principles. The candidate should be decisive and a leader for the store, representing our exclusive brand.